2. Student Achievement

a. Attendance

- Student

Last year January attendance overall was 93.63% and this year, overall was 94.06%.

Our school had most improved attendance for January in district.

6th Last year students had 94.38%, and this year was 93.72%.

7th Last year students had 93.62%, and this year was 94.52%.

8th Last year students had 92.75%, and this year was 93.88%.

- Teacher

Last January teachers had 53.5 absences. This year there were 89 absences, but we were in school several more days.

b. Behavior Report

January 2016, the school had 9 students with behavior reports, and 8 resolutions. This January 2017, the school had 33 students with behavior reports, and 31 resolutions.

The increase of days present at school was much higher this year, compared to last.

3. Planning

a. Program Reviews

Teachers are finishing submitting their final pieces for program review. Some 6th grade teachers needed verification about the requirements for each program folder; Mr. Neace will look into what was required in the past, and the information will be given to teachers at the next program review meeting.

Mr. Neace's report for program review is due in May; therefore, teacher information is due April 14 for all program review folders. This will give time for all PR leaders to go through information, and work with their groups to organize a final report.

b. CSIP (review)

4. Budget Report

Mr. Neace shared this on Google Drive with all members.

Some money was spent on GEO boards for 8th grade.

- a. Instructional
- b. Activity

5. Committee

a. Committee Reports

- i. Leadership- There main discussion has been about scheduling. The committee has shared information and ideas about different schedules, but nothing has been decided.
- ii. Scheduling- The committee proposed a schedule with 50 minute classes and a study zone at the end of the day. Nothing has been finalize at this time.

b. PLC Report:

Both groups are concerned about changing to no block classes.

- i. ELA
- ii. Math

6. Policy Review

- a. Homework- The homework policy was reviewed (homework for each class/subject should be 15 minutes each night). There have been issues of teachers assigning too much homework beyond the policy. The advance classes need to review and create their own homework policy. Some teachers sent home contracts with their advanced track students, stating that they would have a larger amount of homework. When using Standards Based Grading, once students have correctly answered so many questions, they have mastered the target. Some concerns arise in regards to the completion of so much homework related to one target.

Advanced Track

Teachers say the homework for the advanced track needs to be more than 15 minutes per night. The advanced track teachers will have a meeting at start of year to discuss more homework for Advanced Track classes.

7. New Business

- a. Closed Session for discussion on Allocations
Sasha Reinhardt made a motion to go into close session, Joy Bodine seconded.
There was no action in Closed Session.

8. Adjourn

Jennifer Wright motioned to adjourn the meeting; Sasha Reinhardt seconded this.
The meeting adjourned at 7:05 pm.
