Mission Statement

Special Needs Camp of KY, Inc. (SNCKI) provides an educational, recreational, and social week long summer day camp for individuals ages 13 years old and up with intellectual disabilities in one-to-one peer relationships with volunteer counselors. By providing an encouraging, loving, and fun environment, the SNCKI seek to enrich our participant's social development, educational objectives, emotional well-being, and community awareness. SNCKI exists to inspire future generations to eliminate the stigma associated with the disabled community through core principles of compassion, service, opportunity, and love.
