

Bath County Homemaker Scholarship

General Rules

1. Applicant must be a resident of Bath County. Applicants must finish high school within the year they apply.
2. After recipient accepts the award, dropping out of school or vocational training except for serious illness or injury will cause the recipient to lose the award. The remaining part of the award will then be given to the first alternate. This also applies if the recipient drops below a "C" average or full-time status in college or has unsatisfactory performance in vocational training.
3. Applications must be mailed to: Bath County Homemaker Scholarship, 2914 East Highway 60, Owingsville, KY 40360, postmarked by the stated deadline.
4. The Bath County Homemakers will, upon the approval of the high school, announce the scholarship winner at the applicant's high school awards night.
5. The scholarship committee will make the final decision concerning the interpretation of these rules and the judges' decision is final. All applications become the property of the Bath County Homemakers.
6. Winner will be notified in writing.
7. All other things being equal, special consideration will be given to applicants with a Bath County Homemaker club or mail-box member in their family.
